INFORMATION

The information in this report is current to 2022-01-23 at 1430 hours.

- Open source research has social media posts claiming that the Liberal Party is attempting to have GoFundMe cancel the fundraiser supporting the Freedom Convoy and attempting to label the convoy as violent. A social media video has also been identified that echoes this message. The author notes that the Convoy will be peaceful. Another social media post encourages using the funds raised to buy fuel before the Prime Minister blocks it.
- An organizer has posted a message on the Freedom Convoy Telegram channel explaining that she had not provided all of the information to GoFundMe for them to release funds raised and that she would be correcting the oversight. The post also noted that a process for e-transferring funds to a bank account to facilitate ongoing donations (financeconvoy2022@protonmail.com).
- A post on the RISE UP DURHAM website depicts an image of a line of vehicles and people holding signs with a caption that notes that Ottawa will be "wild".
- Information from the [REDACTED] indicates that convoy organizers are cooperating and have developed a thorough and well-organized plan for conducting the event safely.
- The GoFundMe account supporting the Freedom Convoy has raised just over $2.4 million (2022-01-23 1412 hours).
- A separate fundraiser ("ADOPT A TRUCKER") on the crowdfunding site "GiveSendGo.com" has raised $14,083 (2022-01-23 1419 hours).
- A Facebook Event page for the Freedom Convoy event at Parliament Hill on 2022-01-29 indicates that 536 individuals are "Going" and 1300 are "Interested" (2022-01-23 1414 hours).

ASSESSMENT

The available information regarding organization of the Freedom Convoy tends to support online statements by organizers that they wish the event to be safe and lawful. However, online messages and videos have been identified in which supporters of the Freedom Convoy express anger towards elected officials, mainly directed at Prime Minister TRUDEAU. It is possible that local political figures and, possibly, health officials in Ottawa could also be targeted. The available information is insufficient to support this hypothesis at this time.

At least one part of the convoy is scheduled to arrive in Ottawa on 2022-01-28. The intent of these convoy participants and the nature of any potential activities in Ottawa during the time frame from their arrival, likely in the morning of 2022-01-28, until noon on 2022-01-29 are unknown and represent a serious intelligence gap.

We assess that the commercial truck drivers participating in the Freedom Convoy are likely to be generally supportive of holding a lawful protest. However, convoy supporters may include individuals representing ideological movements who may view the protest as an opportunity to advance their own causes or beliefs. Some of these individuals may engage in activities that are not sanctioned or supported by convoy organizers in order to achieve their own objectives. The post on the RISE UP DURHAM website referencing Ottawa being “wild”, which echoes the language used by former US President Donald TRUMP prior to the 2021 attack on the US Capitol, tends to support this hypothesis. If accurate, then this assessment could indicate the possibility for conflict between a larger group comprising commercial truck drivers and a smaller group of ideologically-driven opportunists.

The move of some fundraising from the GoFundMe to electronic transfer will reduce our ability to monitor the ongoing fundraising for the convoy. It is likely that donations to the GoFundMe will slow and the amount shown on the website for total donations will stabilise. If so, this should not be interpreted as a slowdown in actual donations, but may reflect the change in the platform for donations.

TACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS
